Brentford School for Girls wanted to start the school year on a high and to raise their students' aspirations for the year ahead.

1

So Liz Gers, Community Coordinator and Co-Head of Year 11, decided to create an inspiring event for her Year 11 students, setting up 600 student-employer encounters in just one session!

2

Using the Founders4Schools website she discovered local business leaders and brought them into the classroom to talk about their career journeys.

From the business leaders:

From the students:

The feedback from the Year 11 students was positive without exception.

"The event at Brentford School for Girls was one of the best I've been lucky to be a part of."

"Brilliant organisation before the event, it was really great fun. To see at first hand, the ambition and the potential of the students at Brentford School for Girls was very inspiring."
