

BRENTFORD SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

● Founders4Schools inspires students towards high-impact career paths ●

1,800

Student-employer encounters set up by the school

4

Events created by teachers at the school

5

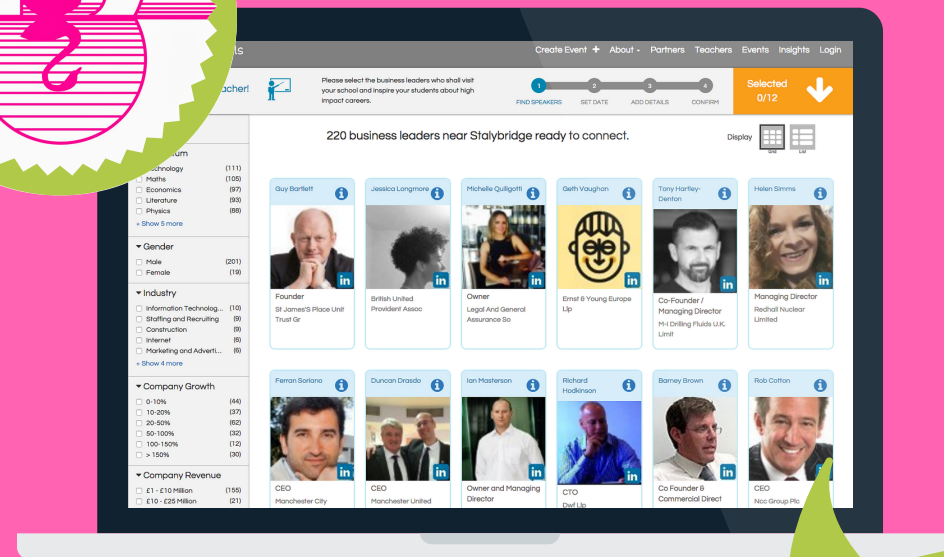

Minutes taken for teachers to organise each event

96%

Of students felt inspired by the speakers

1

Brentford School for Girls wanted to raise the aspirations of young people so that they could answer the question 'what would you like to do in the future?' with more enthusiasm.

2

So, Bobby Ahmadzadeh, teacher and Teach First Ambassador, created an event with local business leaders to speak with the students.

Students heard from 5 business leaders with diverse career paths.

3

From the business leaders

Frank Meehan

Really enjoyed it thanks for setting it up!

4

After the event

Almost all the students got up to talk with the speakers - they had continued beyond the expected time and no one there seemed to want it to end!

Very positive event. I would highly recommend Founders4Schools to other business leaders.

Alicia Navarro

There was a sudden surge in the number of pupils talking about career opportunities as well as requesting to look at cover letters and CVs.

Immediately after the event some students requested information about creating their own app, and others started a lunchtime economics club.