"Instead of thinking what job do I want to do you should be asking, what problem do I want to solve?"

"A really enjoyable insight into the perceptions young people have about the world of work, some of which taught me something new."

Nicholas Panteli: Attollo, The People's Development Network

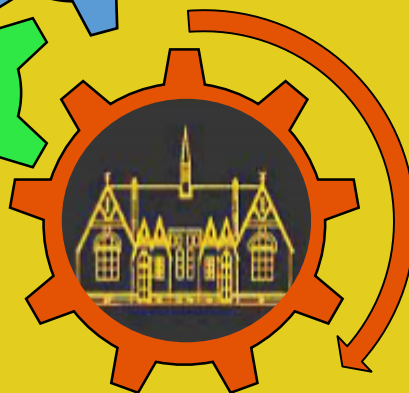

James Stuart: Entrepreneurial Scotland and Loch Lomond and the Trossachs National Park.

Pupil Thoughts

"I learned about different jobs, lots of technology jobs. I learned that jobs will change in the future."

"I now know that you can start a business and within a few years turn it into something huge."

"I want to know more about how to start your own business."

Curriculum For Excellence

I can explain to others my ambitions/what I would like to do and look for ways to achieve them/that. SOC 1-20a
Through taking part in a variety of events and activities, I am learning to recognise my own skills and abilities as well as those of others. HWB 1-19a

Career Education Standard

First level

- I can learn about the world of work from visits, projects and my experiences.
- I can talk to employers about myself and about their workplace.
- I can recognise that there are different ways to get a job.
